EdVest portfolios involve risks, including the possible loss of principal. Consult a program description for additional information on risks. There is no guarantee that an account will grow enough to cover higher education expenses. An investor's or a designated beneficiary's home state may offer state tax or other benefits that are only available for investments in that state's qualified tuition program. Please consider this before investing. Carefully consider the investment objectives, risks, charges, and expenses of EdVest before investing. For a current program description, containing this and other information, call 1-888-338-3789, visit www.EdVest.com, or contact your investment professional. Read it carefully before investing.

EdVest is a state-sponsored 529 college savings plan administered by the Wisconsin Office of the State Treasurer. Wells Fargo Funds Management, LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of Wells Fargo & Company, provides investment management and administrative services to the EdVest plan.
